CHARLES NEGUS CARROLL

Charles Negus Carroll was a convert to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and emigrated to Utah in the year 1854 from New Brunswick, Canada. He was president of the South Hampton Branch of the Church. In that capacity, he led a group of 57 converts as far as Fort Leavenworth where they joined a group in preparation for crossing the plains. An epidemic of cholera was raging in camp, and Charles' wife and three youngest children were among the fatalities. His oldest son, Willard, barely escaped.

Their first year in Utah was spent in Farmington and Salt Lake City, then they moved to Provo, recent immigrants from England. Their first two children were born in Provo. When the youngest was three weeks old, they moved to Heber, being among the first few families to do so. They endured the privations and strenuous labor typical of pioneer life. The house they built contained three rooms, a hall, and a summer kitchen. It was their home for 20 years, and in it their next 10 children were born. Father was an expert farmer and soon added a few sheep and cattle to his possessions.

In May 1868, he moved to Orderville, much more enthusiastic about joining the United Order than was his wife. Charles was soon made foreman of one of the farms and elected a member of the governing board. All the older members of the family were put to work. Kezia and Willard teaching school, as they did in Heber. Also as in Heber, Charles was appointed Justice of the Peace and was prominent in civic, social and church activities, working on boards and committees of various kinds, promoting the public welfare. Following in his footsteps, his family have all been prominent and civic leaders, in executive and teaching capacities in Ward and Stake auxiliary organizations.

After the United Order was dissolved, Charles moved to a large farm house a mile from town to be near his several pieces of land. In this home, his wife found a full measure of contentment, happiness and prosperity. She was kind and gentle by nature and an expert homemaker.

Charles and two of his sons were Patriarchs, two served on missions, one was a Bishop, and one a member of the Stake Presidency. Charles lived to be eighty-four years old, and his wife eighty-seven.

Kezia Giles Carroll, born May 20, 1840, at Brozholm, Lincolnshire, England, daughter of William and Sarah Huskinson Giles. Died June 13, 1927. Married Charles N. Carroll.

Children: Kezia Ann, Charles William, Lucy Elizabeth, Sarah Jane, Mary Lovina, Emma Isabella, Frederick Giles, George Franklin, Irene, Edward, Eleanor, Julia May, Amelia and Amy.

after the settlement of Heber, Henry and Ann Clegg with their large family arrived in Heber and camped on the ground that is now the City Ball Park. Three weeks later, the family moved to a lot on Second North and Main Street, where they lived in a one-room log house, a tent, and a dug-out. They remained there about six months and then moved to the lot where the Seminary now stands, and built a one-room log house. Other additions were added to the house from time to time and remained the family home until after the mother's death.

The father homesteaded a section of land east of Heber and later divided the land among his sons.

Fred L. worked on the farm, at his father's shingle mill, and hauled freight to Fort Duchesne.

He and his wife had 17 children. He was eager for knowledge and attended school after he was married and had a small family. He played an alto horn in the Heber Band for 14 years, and also took parts in local dramas.

He took a prominent part in the public affairs throughout his 57 years of residence in Heber. He was justice of the peace for 14 years, president of the board of education for four years, a member of the City Council, and acted as probation officer.

He did mason work on the Stake Tabernacle for two years at $2.50 per day. He hauled timber to the Anchor Mine at Park City for five years, supervised road construction in Deer Creek, and was a progressive farmer and stock raiser. He was secretary of the Lake Creek Irrigation Co., for 25 years, county chairman of the Republican Party, and took a prominent part in the growth and development of the community.

He suffered a stroke and after 16 months of illness, died.

EMMA CAROLINE LUKE CLEGG

She was the seventh child born in this valley. Her father was an Indian interpreter and many Indians came to their home to smoke the Peace Pipe. The Indians called him Chun-cun-a-bus, which meant cracked feet. He had to work barefooted in the fields and had chapped feet. His father was

FREDERICK LEWIS CLEGG

Frederick Lewis Clegg, born Aug. 6, 1881, in Springville, Utah, died May 11, 1929; son of Henry and Ann Clegg.

Had 17 children.

He moved to Heber City when he was 10. The father heard of beautiful Provo Valley through an Uncle, Jonathan Clegg, who had previously moved to Heber. He reported that it was a prosperous place, that land could be homesteaded, that mines were opening up, and it was a good place for cattle and sheep.

killed and scalped by the Indians when he was on his way to Salt Lake City with a load of wheat and to attend conference.

The family lived in a dirt-roofed log cabin and when it rained the roof leaked and pans were used to catch the rain as it dripped through the mud roof. The father died when Carlie was six years old. She helped her mother weave, pulled weeds, helped get wood from the canyon, picked potatoes on shares, gleaned wheat and pulled sage; all to help with the earning of a living.

She attended school at the old rock, one-room school in the southwest part of town. Some of her teachers were: Charles Nugent, Charles Carroll, Henry Chatwin, William Buys and Henry Clegg.

When she was 14, she went to Salt Lake and worked at the Lion House for Brigham Young and Brigham Young Jr. She washed dishes, scrubbed floors, and went to the market and gardens for the family food.

When she was 21, she married Frederick Lewis Clegg. They built a family home at Sixth South and Main Street, where their 17 children were born.

Carlie was very anxious for her children to have a good education and worked hard and sacrificed to make this possible. Of their nine children who lived to maturity, three are college graduates, two have their masters degrees; and one an LLB.

Two of their sons served on missions, and 23 of their posterity served in the armed forces. There are 105 children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren from this union.

HOW BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

He then recorded in his notes the surveying work done through June 23, 1888 in which he adjusted the city to true measurements.

By 1889 Heber was ready for organization as a township, and Henry Aird was appointed as the first town board president. He served until 1894 when Thomas Huskinson Giles was elected and served two years. James W. Clyde was elected in 1896 and served until the election of Edward D. Clyde in 1898. Robert Duke followed in 1900 and served until 1902 when articles of incorporation were drawn up and the town became an officially incorporated city.

James W. Clyde was elected as the city's first mayor, with membership of the new city council form of government consisting of Joseph Hatch, E. J. Cummings, David C. Hanks, George A. Wootton and Joseph A. Murdock.

An early action by the mayor and city council consisted of calling for bids to run the sprinkling wagon through the city on dusty summer days. Bidders and their prices per day included Ed Tilt, $2.80; Bert Tilt, $2.50; J. C. Murdock, $2.40; Harmon Cummings, $2.50; Walter Wickham, $2.25 and John Carlile, $2.48.

The council acted on the "lowest qualified bid" and hired Mr. Wickham to sprinkle the streets.

In the election of November, 1903, candidates aligned themselves with the Democratic and Republican political parties, and the Democrats won a sweeping community victory.

The new city officials were Joseph A. Rasband, mayor; John T. Giles, four-year councilman; Joseph R. Murdock, A. B. Murdock, Orson Ryan and F. L. Clegg, two-year councilmen; David W. Hicken, marshal; LaVina Murdock, recorder; George Barzee, treasurer and Livingston Montgomery, justice of the peace.

In May of 1905 the city officials promoted a bond election to raise $40,000 for the purpose of installing a water system. By 1905 the city council was able to pass the following ordinance:

"That a water works system be constructed to supply its inhabitants with water and shall be known and designated as Heber City Water Works. The said system shall be the property of said city."

Early the following spring, work was underway to complete the system. The main source of supply was the Broadhead Spring, east of the city.

Heber's third mayor was elected in the fall of 1905 and served during 1906 and 1907. He was Joseph R. Murdock. Serving with him on the city council were David Fisher, John T. Giles, Robert Duke, Joseph E. D. Tomlinson and John E. Moulton. Joseph A. Murdock was recorder with Moroni Moulton, treasurer; David W. Hicken, marshal and Fred L. Clegg, justice of the peace.

A significant cultural step was taken by Mayor Murdock in Novem-
